

PROGRAMME PROJECT REPORT (PPR)
MASTER OF ARTS IN URDU (M.A. Urdu)
Open and Distance Learning (ODL) Mode

1. Programme Mission and Objectives

Programme Mission

The Master of Arts in Urdu (M.A. Urdu) programme offered through Open and Distance Learning (ODL) mode aims to promote advanced learning, scholarship, research, and critical understanding of Urdu language, literature, linguistics, literary criticism, and cultural studies. The programme seeks to preserve, promote, and disseminate the rich literary and cultural heritage of Urdu while ensuring access to quality postgraduate education for diverse learners through flexible learning pathways. The programme aligns with the vision of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, National Credit Framework (NCrF), UGC Curriculum and Credit Framework for Postgraduate Programmes (CCFPG), and UGC (ODL and Online Programmes) Regulations, 2020.

Programme Objectives

The programme aims to:

1. Develop advanced knowledge of Urdu language, literature, and literary traditions.
2. Familiarize learners with classical, medieval, modern, and contemporary Urdu literature.
3. Promote critical and analytical understanding of poetry, prose, fiction, drama, and literary movements.
4. Develop linguistic competence and understanding of Urdu linguistics.
5. Enhance translation, communication, and media-writing skills.
6. Develop research aptitude and scholarly writing skills.
7. Encourage independent learning through MOOCs and digital learning platforms.
8. Prepare learners for teaching, journalism, translation, publishing, media, research, and competitive examinations.
9. Promote the preservation and dissemination of Urdu language and culture.

2. Relevance of the Programme with the HEI's Mission and Goals

The programme is fully aligned with the mission of Maulana Azad National Urdu University (MANUU) to provide inclusive, equitable, accessible, and quality higher education through the Urdu medium. The programme contributes towards:

- Promotion and development of Urdu language and literature.
- Educational empowerment of Urdu-speaking communities.
- Access to higher education for women, minorities, working professionals, madrasa graduates, and learners from disadvantaged backgrounds.
- Capacity building for teaching, research, translation, journalism, and literary studies.

- Achievement of NEP 2020 goals relating to flexibility, inclusiveness, multidisciplinary education, and lifelong learning.

3. Nature of Prospective Target Group of Learners

The programme is designed for:

- Graduates interested in advanced studies in Urdu.
- Urdu teachers and educators.
- Madrasa graduates eligible for higher education.
- NET/JRF aspirants.
- Civil Services and competitive examination aspirants.
- Journalists, writers, translators, and media professionals.
- Working professionals seeking postgraduate qualifications.
- Women learners and lifelong learners.
- Learners from rural and underserved areas.

4. Appropriateness of the Programme in ODL Mode

The study of Urdu language and literature primarily involves reading, interpretation, analysis, criticism, writing, and research. These learning outcomes can effectively be achieved through well-designed Self-Learning Materials (SLMs), digital resources, online counselling, audio-video lectures, webinars, discussion forums, and assignments. The ODL mode provides:

- Flexibility in learning.
- Wider accessibility.
- Learner-centric pedagogy.
- Continuous academic support.
- Opportunities for lifelong learning.

Therefore, the programme is highly suitable for delivery through Open and Distance Learning mode.

5. Instructional Design, Curriculum Framework and Credit Structure

The programme follows:

- UGC (ODL and Online Programmes) Regulations, 2020
- National Education Policy (NEP) 2020
- National Credit Framework (NCrF)
- UGC Curriculum and Credit Framework for Postgraduate Programmes (CCFPG)
- Choice Based Credit System (CBCS)
